The large damage dene by water in this county recently had dampened his cardor somowhat, but he has come home with a new supply of enthulaism, ready to continue the fight for good roads as vigorously as possible.

Dried States Senators to be Elected by the People instead of the Legislatures.

The election of United States Senators, by direct vote of the people was assured Tuesday when the Connecticut Legislature ratified a proposed amendment to the constitution. Connecticut makes 36, or three fourths of the states which have given their approval to the reform. It will become effective as soon as the action of the states shall have been certified to the State Department and Secretary Bryan shall have issued his proclamation.

This changes the time of election of the Kentucky Senators to the general election immediately preceding the time when the vacancy cocurs in the office. This election will occur in November, 1914. The primary, therefore, in accordance with the state primary law, must be held during August 1914.

The effect of the postponement of the primary on the present candidates may be great. In the meantime other, candidates may appear. The candidates for the House of Representatives will be selected at the same primary at which the senatorial candidates are named. Stainley, therefore, will have to choose between being a candidate for the House or Senate.

The Board of Health Speaks.

To the Officials and People of Kentucky:

In view of the danger to heaith and life in most of the river counties and cities from unsunitary couditions and damage to water supplies, which will become more pronounced as the floods recede and the season advances, the State Board of Health, in the discharge of an evident public duty, appears to the health and civic officials, the newspapers, business men's associations of the season and the recent of the season tion, women's clubs, and the people in every town and county in the flood districts, to call public meetings or in other ways arouse public sentiment for an organized, systematic and thorough clean-up cam-paign, the free liming and whitewashing of all recently overflowed premises, and the boiling of all auspicious drinking water.

After the officials do all that is in their ower, still more will remain to he done by the individual and fo me done by the individual and family, and no good citizen should wait to be forced to an evident duty especially as such work and the incident expenso will be found far cheaper than the sickness which will follow negiect. Trained inspectors are now in the most exposed sections, but the main responsibility is with the local officials and people. with the local officials and people, and it is to them that this appeal is addressed.

Constipation and Catarrh

Constipation was my chief different treating these cases. I often that it would be better if a laxatelement were added to Peruna. I feel to do so, however, first because the number of catarrhal patients uneeded no laxative, and second I vafraid of making such a radical chastin a remedy that was already do so well. Thus it was that I continut to prescribe with the Peruna a bed of Manalin to those who needed a lative. At last, under circumstance planed in my booklet, I was extrained to add the laxative element Peruna. This constitutes what is milknown as the revised Peruna.

Now those who take Peruna wirst, find themselves promptly relief of their constipation. Second, catarrh will gradually disappear. A once the catarrh is cured the constitution is severally interested.

Tou are constipated. You have taken laxatives a great many years. You have tried to select a diet that would keep your bowels regular. In this you have failed and were obliged to go back to your laxatives again. This, I say, has been going on many years.

You also have a slight catarrh in the head and throat. You never imagined that the catarrh had anything to do with the constipation. Suppose I were to tell you that as long as you have that catarrh you will never get better of your constipation. Would you head so send you a free booklet.

Nature intended that the body should do its own repairing—and it would do so were it not for the fact that most of us live other than a natural life.
